 - any item, as determined by staff, that could threaten the maintenance of good order and personal safety.

Consequences for Unacceptable Student Behaviour

Student behaviour that does not comply with the expected standards and is not acceptable may be given an Individual Behaviour (Engagement) Plan. Individual Behaviour (Engagement) Plans for students will set out the range and level of responses and consequences for student behaviour that is not consistent with the Code of Conduct. Consequences are to be applied to:

- assist students who exhibit challenging behaviours to accept responsibility for
- themselves and their actions,
- allow for re-engagement of the student in the classroom and the school's learning program,
- provide the opportunity for all students to learn, and
- ensure the safety of staff and students.

In applying consequences for unacceptable student behaviour, the individual circumstances and actions of the student and the needs and rights of school community members will be considered at all times.

The school will use a range of consequences that are authorised by the Department of Education which may include:

- Detention (for example; restricted lunch areas)
- Individual Behaviour (Engagement) Plans - Contracts
- In School Community Service Interventions (e.g.: yard duty, cleaning graffiti etc.)
- Suspensions
- Exclusions
- Cancellations of enrolment
- Loss of Good Standing
