A THOUGHT

Strong feelings do not necessarily make a strong character. The strength of a man is to be measured by the power of the feelings he subdues not by the power of those which subdue him.

William Carleton

The School Board and P&C have considered the school's policy on drugs and guidance to parents on parties. The feedback of parents to the draft documents is appreciated. Both documents will be available on the school's website shortly.

The position outlined in the Drug Policy is clear. Mount Lawley Senior High School has a zero tolerance approach to drug supply and use on the grounds of the school by students. Students in breach of this position will be suspended and the police will be advised. Students and parents will be provided with guidance and support and referrals to relevant agencies. There is no place in any school for drugs. This also includes the misuse of prescription medication, the abuse of substances and the unauthorised supply of any pharmaceutical product.

This week has been celebrated as Languages Week. The study of Languages Other Than English is mandated in Years 8-10. This curriculum posture is a significant point of differentiation for Mount Lawley SHS. It is a languages school. The school is one of two in the state that hosts a Gifted and Talented program in Languages.

A range of activities were conducted at the school. Some were specifically for GATE students, others for lower-school students. A very popular event was the food stall at lunch time. This was provided by hard working parents of the Parent Languages Support Group. Thanks to the parents who added value to Languages Week. Thanks to Mrs Grace Costa, Head of Languages, who has reinvigorated the concept of Languages Week and her staff.

The final music concert for the year was held on Tuesday evening in the auditorium at Churchlands SHS. A range of ensembles performed across both the Middle School and the Senior School to the delight of the audience. For the first time in many years, due to the numbers of students in both the concert band and string domains, there was a performance by an orchestra. It is hoped that this can be continued.

Events like this are due to the organising and work of staff and the parent Support Group. Thanks to the music staff – Mr Manning, Ms Chapman and Ms Gallagher as well as the teachers from the School of Instrumental Music. A special thanks to Ms Prue Griffin and her wonderful parent group who always assist behind the scenes and are stalwarts of the program. They make a real difference. Thanks to parent, Ms Sue Faranda, who designed the program.

The last P&C meeting considered the submission from parents, students and staff for funds as part of the P&C's budget for projects of $50,000. Some have been endorsed and the next meeting will no doubt finalise this process.

A number of bids were made for the installation of lockers and air conditioning. These were not supported. A factor in the decision not to support air conditioning was that the school is scheduled to be air cooled in the government's program shortly. In terms of lockers, a number of years ago when the school was rebuilt parents supported funds that could have been allocated to a locker area to be incorporated into the general design of the school. This was to maximise the learning environment for students. There is no place where lockers can be installed in order to provide a sense of security.

The work to establish the Year 7 facility continues. The architectural team has produced several options and feedback has been provided. The design should be confirmed shortly and construction is expected to commence early in 2013. The building will be located between the Middle School and the gymnasium. This will result in the re-location of the existing bike cage and horticultural area. Further details will be provided as they emerge.

Congratulations are extended to Year 11 student, Jack (11F1), who is a finalist in the prestigious Premier's Student ANZAC Tour. Jack now proceeds to the interview stage of selection and the best wishes of all are offered to him. Good luck.

Additionally, congratulations to Mr Payne and the students in Year 9 who won the Science and Engineering Challenge. This is a prestigious competition where students work in teams and solve a problem in an engineering context. This is the third year in a row that Mount Lawley SHS has been successful in this event. Well done to all concerned.

Do your kids suffer from Nomophobia?

Posted on September 3, 2012 by Shridevi

This relatively new condition is also one of the most – if not the most – prevalent in the Western world.

Like most phobias, sufferers report bouts of severe anxiety and irrational fear.

According to a recent survey, as many as 66% of us suffer Nomophobia. But what is it?

Nomophobia is also known as No Mobile Phone Phobia and is characterized by:

- ▶ An inability to ever turn your phone off
- ▶ Obsessively checking for missed calls, emails and texts
- ▶ Constantly topping up your battery life
- ▶ Being unable to pop to the bathroom without taking your phone in with you.

GENERATION NEXT

Generation Next is an exciting new initiative featuring a national seminar series and supporting resources aimed at protecting and enhancing the wellbeing of our children and teenagers.
