

MOUNT LAWLEY SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL LAWLEY UPDATE Term 2 May 2012 No. 7

PRINCIPAL'S REPORT

Congratulations are extended to James (Year 11), Billy (Year 12), and Jackson (Year 12) for being awarded Defence Technical Scholarships. This is a prestigious award and provides $2,000 In Year 11 and $3,000 In Year 12 to support students with their studies. To apply, students must be undertaking a course with a focus on information technology, trades or technical studies. Applications for the scholarships in 2013 will open later this year. Mrs Smith is the staff member who co-ordinates the program for the school.

Year 9 students have now completed the NAPLAN regime for 2012. It is noted that the tests have attracted media comment as to their place in schooling. The Middle School teachers have achieved a suitable balance between preparing students so that they have confidence in sitting the tests and ensuring that the core curriculum is delivered. NAPLAN is not the driver of Middle School operations – the Western Australian Curriculum Framework is, until it is replaced by the Australian Curriculum over the next few years.

I also note that with NAPLAN tests on Spelling and Grammar and Punctuation, Middle School teachers have observed a better focus on the conventions of English. With the school focus on writing as a vital learning tool and skill for later life, improved student understanding of our language is a positive attribute for later life.

Year 9 students will receive their NAPLAN report later in the year. The school's results, of course, are used on the My School website as a piece of information on which parents may compare school performance. As this is a reality I do have an expectation that students will be prepared for NAPLAN so they can achieve to their ability level. It is also an opportunity to prepare students for examinations – something they must undergo if they pursue a university pathway in the senior years.

Students in the Senior School commence Semester 1 examinations next week. Unlike NAPLAN, these do have a bearing on their subject performance and grade. Teachers have prepared their classes for examinations and all wish students the best. For students in Year 11 these examinations are their first and they should seek to add 2% each examination. Good luck to all.

Mount Lawley SHS is a Gifted and Talented Languages school and I am pleased to advise parents that Mrs Grace Costa has now commenced duties as the Curriculum Leader in Languages. Mrs Costa has many years of experience in teaching Italian and she is looking forward to the challenges of curriculum leadership at Mount Lawley SHS. She is warmly welcomed.

As with the last few years, Mount Lawley SHS has supported the Indigenous War Veterans ceremony in Kings Park. This year the Junior Concert Band and Choir members will attend. This year His Excellency, the Governor of Western Australia, Malcolm McCusker AC, CVO, QC will attend, as will representatives of government. This is a wonderful opportunity for the Junior Concert Band, composed mainly, of Middle School students, to perform in public. Ms Gallagher, Mr Manning and Choir director, Mr Clarke, are working to prepare them. They will do credit to their school.

Parents have an opportunity to hear the school's many outstanding music students at the concert on Thursday, 7 June 2012. This will be held, as usual, at WAAPA. Both Junior and Senior concerts will take place and parents may purchase tickets for one or both concerts. As usual the hard working Parent Music Support Committee will be providing refreshments. The students always play and sing marvellously well and it is thoroughly recommended as an excellent night's entertainment.

We have had to schedule the Aboriginal Excellence Program welcome to 2012 on the same night (Thursday, 7 June 2012) to meet diary requirements of participants. Independence Group NL has again agreed to provide some funds to support the participating students. Dr Paioff, the program manager, will be inviting parents and students to the function, which will be held at school from 6:00pm. Staff and mentors from ECU will also attend.
